The Running head (header) is a short version of the title. It should be in ALL CAPS and only two or three words.

Full Title of Paper Goes Here

Student First and Last Name

Course Code: Course Name

Instructor Name

Date of Submission

Choose your own title. Do not bold or underline the title.

The title, your name, course code, instructor name and date should all be double spaced and centered on the page.

1 inch Margin

Your paper should have 1 inch margins on all sides of every page. (This is the default in Microsoft Word)

The entire paper should be double spaced and the font should be 12 pt. Times New Roman.

The page number should be in the top right corner of every page.
Use the short version of the title of your paper.

Full Title of Paper

Do not bold or underline the title.

The first sentence of each paragraph should have a half-inch indent.

Level 1 Heading

Type your paper here. Type your paper here. Type your paper here. Type your paper here.

Level 2 Heading

Type your paper here. Type your paper here. Type your paper here. Type your paper here.

1 inch Margin

Your paper should have 1 inch margins on all sides of every page.
(This is the default in Microsoft Word)

The entire paper should be double spaced and the font should be 12 pt.
Times New Roman.

The references should be double spaced.
The references are listed in alphabetical order by the author’s last name.
The reference page is on a separate page from the rest of the document.
Hanging indents should be used for all reference list entries. This means all lines after the first line of each entry should be indented one half inch from the left margin.